Literature and Composition 7th-9th Mrs. Oesch-1st hour	The Wednesday Wars – Gary D. Schmidt The Twelfth Night – William Shakespeare (I strongly recommend the SparkNotes – No Fear Shakespeare version of this because it has the original writing next to a modernized version of it to help students understand the old English.) The Unteachables – Gordon Korman On the Edge of the Dark Sea of Darkness – Andrew Peterson The Fellowship of the Ring – J.R.R. Tolkien Because of Winn Dixie – Kate DiCamillo Counting by 7s – Holly Goldberg Sloan Beyond the Bright Sea – Lauren Wolk There is no textbook for the class, but students must have access to all novels listed above.
Literature and Composition 7th-9th Mr. Autrey-2nd & 3rd hours	Bridge to Terabithia by Katherine Paterson My Side of the Mountain by Jean George Mossflower by Brian Jacques The City of Ember by Jeanne DuPrau The Fighting Ground by Avi When the World was Ours by Liz Kessler Redwall by Brian Jacques The Lightning Thief by Rick Riordan There is no textbook for the class, but students must have access to all novels listed above.

Literature and Composition 9th-10th	For vocabulary: each student must purchase Worldly Wise 3000: Book 9, 4th Edition. Do not purchase other editions, only 4th edition. https://www.christianbook.com/worldly-wise-3000-book-student-edition/9780838877098/pd/877106?event=ESRCG Novels, Play, and Poetry to be purchased by each student: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, by Robert Louis Stevenson 2. Out of the Silent Planet, by C.S. Lewis 3. Murder on the Orient Express, by Agatha Christie 4. The Singer, by Calvin Miller 5. Unbroken, by Lauren Hillenbrand 6. Macbeth, by William Shakespeare Students must have a hard copy of each of these books to participate in class. We may not study them in the above order, so be sure to have them on hand from the beginning of the year. Please purchase them FAR in advance (Amazon is a great place to find them used, or thriftbooks.com). Do not use audiobooks, the books must be physically read. The teacher will send info if a particular version is required (as in the Shakespeare side-by-side translation).
Literature and Composition 11th-12th	Here are the book selections for the year. Students must have access to these books to participate in class. Penguin Classics are wonderful editions to buy because they usually have interesting introductions/forewords at the beginning of the book. Please purchase them FAR in advance (Amazon is a great place to find them used). I choose books that make a good addition to any family library. It is essential that you have a working printer at home. Much Ado About Nothing-William Shakespeare The Importance of Being Earnest-Oscar Wilde Sense and Sensibility-Jane Austen Dear Mr. Knightley-Katherine Reay Love Does-Bob Goff Up From Slavery-Booker T. Washington The Help-Kathryn Stockett This Present Darkness-Frank Peretti Don Quixote : Illustrated Abridged Children Classic English Novel with Review Questions (Illustrated Classics) Hardcover – October 22, 2021, ISBN-10 : 9354403476, ISBN-13 : 978-9354403477 There is no textbook for the class, but students must have access to all novels listed above.
